

§ 19.732 Details of daily records.

The daily records required by this part shall conform to the following requirements:

(a) Spirits shall be recorded by kind and by quantity in proof gallons, except as provided in § 19.751.

(b) Denatured spirits shall be recorded by formula number and by quantity in wine gallons.

(c) Distilling materials produced on the premises shall be recorded by kind and by quantity in wine gallons. Chemical byproducts containing spirits, articles, spirits residues, and distilling materials received on the premises shall be recorded by kind, by percent of alcohol by volume, and by quantity in wine gallons. However, when nonliquid distilling materials which are not susceptible to such quantitative determination are received, the quantity of such materials may be determined by weight and shall be so recorded, and the alcohol content need not be recorded. When it can be shown that it is impractical to weigh or otherwise determine the exact quantity of such nonliquid materials, the proprietor may estimate the weight or volume of the material.

(d) Wines shall be recorded by kind, by quantity in wine gallons, and by percent of alcohol by volume.

(e) Alcoholic flavoring materials shall be recorded by kind, formula number (if any) and by quantity in proof gallons.

(f) Containers (other than those bearing lot identification numbers) or cases involved in each operation or transaction shall be recorded by type, serial number, and the number of containers (including identifying marks on bulk conveyances), or cases. However, spirits withdrawn in cases may be recorded without the serial numbers of the cases, unless the regional director (compliance) requires such recording. Package identification numbers, number of packages, and proof gallons per package shall be recorded on deposit record in the storage account reflecting production gauges or filling of packages from tanks, however, only the lot identification, number of packages, and proof gallons per package need be shown for transactions in packages of spirits unless package identification numbers are specifically required by this part.

(g) Materials intended for use in the production of spirits shall be recorded by kind and by quantity, recording liquids in gallons and other materials in pounds, and giving the sugar content for molasses.

(h) The name and address of the consignee or consignor, and if any, the plant number or industrial use permit number of such person, shall be recorded for each receipt or removal of materials, spirits, denatured spirits, articles, spirits residues, and wine.

(i) The serial number of the tank used shall be recorded for each operation or transaction.

(j) The rate of duty paid on imported spirits shall be shown on the transaction forms or records.

(k) Records shall identify imported spirits, spirits from Puerto Rico, and spirits from the Virgin Islands, or the records shall show that a distilled spirits product contains such spirits.

(l) Records shall identify spirits that are to be used exclusively for fuel use.

(Sec. 807, Pub. L. 96-39, 93 Stat. 284 (26 U.S.C. 5207))

PRODUCTION ACCOUNT*§ 19.736 Daily production records.

(a) Spirits production. Each proprietor shall maintain daily production account records of production operations showing:

(1) The receipt of fermenting material or other nonalcoholic material intended for use in the production of spirits.

(2) The receipt and use of spirits, denatured spirits, articles, and spirits residues received for redistillation.

(3) The fermenting material set in each fermenter or other material used in the production of spirits.

(4) The distilling material produced, received for production, and used in production of spirits, or destroyed or removed from the premises before being distilled (including the residue of beer returned to the producing brewery).

(5) The gauge of spirits in each receiving tank, the production gauge (in proof gallons) of spirits removed from each tank, and the transaction form or record and its serial number covering each removal. The details of individual packages filled pursuant to production gauge for immediate withdrawal from bonded premises shall also be recorded.

(6) The fermenting materials or other nonalcoholic materials used or removed from the premises.

(7) The quantity and testing for alcoholic content of fusel oil or other chemicals removed from the production system and the disposition thereof with the name of the consignee, if any.

(8) The kind and quantity of distillates removed from the production system pursuant to § 19.322.

(9) The kind and quantity of spirits, lost or destroyed prior to production gauge. Records pertaining to the production account shall be maintained in such a manner that the spirits produced may be traced through the distilling system to the mash or other material from which produced, and the identity of the spirits thus traced may be clearly established.

(b) Byproduct spirit production. Each proprietor who manufactures substances other than spirits, in a process which produces spirits as a byproduct, shall maintain daily production records as to each such process showing:

(1) The kind and quantity of materials received, unless included in records maintained under paragraph (a) of this section.

(2) The spirits produced and disposed of.

(3) The kind and quantity of other substances produced.

(Sec. 807, Pub. L. 96–39, 93 Stat. 284 (26 U.S.C. 5207))

STORAGE ACCOUNT

§ 19.740 Daily storage records.

(a) General. Proprietors shall maintain daily records in the storage account which shall show for each kind of spirits or wine, as applicable:

(1) Spirits or wines received for deposit in storage;

(2) Spirits mingled;

(3) Spirits in tanks;

(4) Spirits or wines filled into packages from tanks and retained for storage;

(5) Spirits of less than 190 degrees of proof or wines transferred from one tank to another;

(6) Spirits returned to bond;

(7) Spirits or wines voluntarily destroyed;

(8) Spirits or wines lost during storage;

(9) The transfer of spirits or wine from one package to another;

(10) The addition of oak chips to spirits and the addition of caramel to brandy or rum; and

(11) The disposition of spirits or wines.

(b) Records covering deposits. The proprietor's copies of gauge records, transfer records, or tank records of wines or spirits of less than 190 degrees of proof covering: deposit in the storage account of spirits received from the production account, from customs custody, or by return to bond under subpart U of this part, or of wines or spirits from other bonded premises; packages of spirits or wines filled from tanks and retained in the storage account after mingling; and wines or spirits of less than 190 degrees of proof transferred from one tank to another, shall be utilized by the proprietor to record wines or spirits deposited in the storage account. The proprietor shall enter the date of deposit of the spirits in storage on the record. Files of deposit records shall be maintained for spirits in packages and such files shall be arranged by producers (by warehouseman in the case of blended rums or brandies and for spirits of 190 degrees or more of proof, by the warehouseman who received the spirits from customs custody in the case of imported spirits, and by producer in the Virgin Islands or Puerto Rico in the case of Virgin Islands or Puerto Rican spirits), in chronological order according to the date of deposit in the storage account, and, when possible, in sequence by lot identification for packages. (For the purpose of records under this section spirits produced under trade names shall be treated as being produced under the real name of the proprietor [producer].) Also, files of deposit records shall be maintained, in
